SILVER DOLLARS.

59 1794 A rather weak impression, and somewhat injured by circulation, but desirable on account of its rarity
60 1795 Flowing hair. Head rubbed, but on the whole, very good.

61 1795 An unusually good impression—a variety from the one above—two pin scratches on the hair and slight marks of circulation ; still a most desirable piece.

62 1795 Fillet head, and although injured by circulation, a tolerably fair Dollar for date.

63 1796 Large date ; only ordinary.

64 1797 Seven stars facing ; ordinary.

65 1797 Six do do fair, but scarce.

66 1798 Fair impression.

67 1798 Fair impression ; not quite as good.

68 1798 Small eagle ; 13 stars ; rare but much circulated.

68 1798 do 15 do not much circulated, and rare.

69 1799 Fine, but not quite uncirculated.

70 1799 Another, more circulated.

71 1799 Five stars facing ; the head rubbed, but the other parts really good—desirable—being very difficult to find at all fine.

73 1800 Much circulated.

74 1801 Head rubbed ; barely fair, but rarer than preceding.

75 1802 Struck over 1801 ; a good deal rubbed, but scarce.

76 1802 Another, rather poorer.

77 1803 Really a fine impressison ; not much circulated.

78 1803 Another, not in such good condition.

79 1840 Fair impression, but nicked.

89 1848 More circulated.

90 1849 Fair, but nicked.

91 1850 much finer, but nicked.

92 1850 New Orleans Mint ; very poor.

93 1851 Beautiful proof ; very desirable ; and much sought after.

94 1852 do do do

95 1853 One of the finest impressions I have seen, although not entirely free from slight marks of circulation ; a semi-proof polish.

96 1857 A beautiful impression ; has the appearance of a proof ; slight nicks on the field.

HALF DOLLARS.

97 1794 Although injured by circulation, this is a better half dollar than is usually offered at auction.

98 1795 Poor.

99 1796 Head and stars considerably rubbed, but, from its great rarity, very desirable, although for any other date it would be called poor.

100 1797 A shade better than preceding ; W. M. marked on the field ; scarce.
101 1801 Very poor ; damaged ; rare.
102 1802 do scarce.

347 do do but Philip and Mary round the head, more circulated.

Elizabeth—1558 to 1603.

348 Crown; head a little rubbed; all else very good; a very rare crown, and considering the period, I should say very desirable.

349 Half Crown; much rarer than the Crown; a slight scratch across the head; very desirable; condition about the same as the Crown.

350 Shilling; very good for the period, and scarce.

351 1561 Shilling; Ob. good; Rev. very poor; a variety.

352 1568 Sixpence; very good impression and scarce.

353 1575 do poor do

354 1583 do very good do

355 1580 Three pence; in fair condition and very scarce.

James I.—1603 to 1625.

356 Crown; in barely fair condition for the period; scarce, as all of this King are.

357 Half Crown; in somewhat like condition, and scarce.

358 Shilling; in fair condition do

359 Another, nearly as good do

360 do more circulated do

361 1604 Sixpence; head rubbed; all else good; very scarce.

362 1605 do very poor.

363 Twopence; very fair for period; rare.

364 One penny; better; do

365 Twopence; Ob. "I. D. G., rosa sine spina;" full blown rose crowned; Rev. "Tueatur unita Deus;" thistle flower crowned; fine and scarce.

366 One penny; Ob. full blown rose; Rev. thistle flower crowned; no inscription on either side; fine and scarce.

367 Irish penny; very small; silvered; Jaco D. G. Mag. Brt. Fra. et Hib. Rex.; Crown with two sceptres crossed; harp crowned; fine and rare.

Charles I.—1625 to 1649.

368 1642 Twenty Shilling, or Pound piece; King on horseback; Rev. Legend "Exurgat Deus, dissipentur inimica;" a very rare piece, and I do not remember to have seen one in better condition.

369 1642 Ten Shilling piece; similar to preceding; condition not quite as good; equally rare.

370 1642 Another, very much better; a variety from the preceding in mint marks, position of the plume of feathers behind the King, and many other points; quite as rare as the pound piece.

371 Crown; king on horseback; Rev., coat of arms; mint mark, a rose; in good condition for the period; very scarce.

372 Crown; Ob. similar but more injured by circulation; Rev., very fine, has C R over the coat of arms; mint mark, a Harp; Shield different; very rare.

373 Half Crown; design and legend similar to the crowns, but feathers on the trappings of the horse; condition barely fair.

374 Half Crown; Ob. similar; Rev. without the feathers; Shield oval with C on the left, R on the right of the shield; condition barely fair.

375 Another; poor but remarkable for the peculiar position of the king on the horse.

376 Half Crown; similar to the last, with the C R left out.

377 do; this is called the Briot half Crown, and is very rare; Ob. same design as the others; Rev., the legend is "Quæ Deus coniunxit nemo separet"; the figure and the horse are considerably rubbed, but the rest of the coin is such as to make it desirable as an important variety.

378 Another, very poor indeed.

379 Shilling; head; Rev., Quæ Deus &c.; fair for the time; rare.

380 Another do Rev., "Christo auspico regno"; very good for the time.

381 do do do variety fair

382 do do do good.

383 do do do do

384 do do do poor.

385 Four Pence; Ob. Head to left; on right side, IIII; left, bunch of feathers: very good and scarce.

386 Three Pence, same design and condition; scarce.

386½ do without the feather, and different from above; fair.

387 Very small copper penny; Ob. Crown with two sceptres crossed; Rev., full blown rose; very good for the period, and rare.

SIEGE PIECES.

388 Design, Crown, with C R under; Rev. the denomination of the coin in figures; say Crown, Half Crown, Shilling, Sixpence, Threepence, and Twopence; the pieces are much worn, as I have generally found these coins to be; they are however, very scarce; in all six pieces.

NEWARK SIEGE PIECES.

Design same as preceding; Diamond shape.

389 1646 Thirty-pence, much rubbed; very rare.

390 1645 Twelve-pence; very fair for the period; very rare.

391 1645 Ninepence, the same do

392 1646 Sixpence; scratched on the Ob.; rare.

393 1648 Pontefract Shilling; Ob. crown over CR., "Dum spero spiro;" Rev. Castle; OBS on its right and a sword on its left, 1648 underneath: the condition is better than any one I have seen for a very long time, the principal defect being the figure four in the date, being almost obliterated; it is exceedingly scarce and very desirable.

Commonwealth.—1649 to 1656.

394 1653 Crown; "The Commonwealth of England;" Rev. "God with us;" I think this the finest crown that I have yet met with, it is comparatively so little circulated; very rare in this condition.

395 1653 Half Crown; in fair condition for the time, and rare.

396 1652 Shilling; do do do

397 1652 Sixpence; rather poor.

398 Two Pence; in fine condition; rare.

399 One Penny; do do

400 Irish Halfpenny; exceedingly small; Ob. shield; Rev. harp: very fine and rare.

OLIVER CROMWELL.—1656 TO 1660.

401 1658 Crown; Ob. Head. "Olivar. D. G. R., &c.; Rev. a crowned shield, "Pax quaeritur bello:" although a little circulated about the cheek and hair, I think it the most beautiful Crown of Cromwell I have ever seen; it has a fine proof polish; cracked die; exceedingly rare, and equally desirable in this condition.

402 1658 Half Crown; similar in design, but not equal in condition: but fine and very rare.

403 1658 Shilling; in good condition and very rare.

CHARLES II.—1660 TO 1685.

404 1662 Crown; head a good deal worn.

405 1677 do much better, but rubbed on the head: different die.

406 1670 Half Crown; much worn.

407 1663 Shilling: a beautiful impression; barely circulated; very rare.

408 1681 Sixpence; very nearly as good.

409 Maunday Money; 4d., 3d., 2d., 2d. and 1d.; all good but the penny.

JAMES II.—1685 TO 1688.

410 1687 Crown; remarkably good impression, almost uncirculated, and rare in this condition.

411 1687 Crown, much circulated, but scarce.

412 1687 Half Crown, in fair condition for the time, rare.

413 Maunday money, 4d., 3d., and 2d., in fair condition.

414 Tin piece, Ob. King on horseback, looking right; Rev., Arms of England, France, Ireland and Spain crowned and connected by a chain; barely circulated, and rare in this condition.

WILLIAM AND MARY—1688 TO 1695

415 1692 A fine Crown, almost entirely uncirculated, but from a defect in the striking, part of the legend on both sides is very indistinct: W. and M. interlinked on the reverse.

416 1692 Half Crown; a very fine impression, and a most desirable piece, scarce; similar design to the crown.

417 1693 Half Crown; fair, and same in design.

418 1689 do different shield on reverse; barely fair.

419 1690 do heads to right; another variety; reverse much rubbed

420 1692 Shilling; similar to the Crown in design; barely fair.

421 Maunday Money; 4d., 2d., and 1d.; very good and scarce; 3 pieces.

422 Pattern piece, farthing size; head of William on one side and Mary on the other; not uncirculated; rare.

423 Pattern piece, with the head of Mary; Rev. rose; "Ex candore decus:" proof; very rare.

WILLIAM III.—1695 TO 1702.

424 1696 Crown; very strong impression; injured by circulation; scarce.

425 1696 Another still more circulated.

426 1697 Half Crown; poor.

427 1699 do head to right, poor. Reverse diff'erent.

428 1696 Shilling; rather poor.
429 1696 Sixpence; very fair.
430 Maunday Money, 4d., 3d., 2d., and 1d., very fair.

ANNE—1702 TO 1714.

431 1702 Crown; Vigo under the bust of the Queen; a very fine impression; almost uncirculated; rare in this condition.
432 1707 Crown; E. under the bust; barely fair.
433 1707 do Rev., rose and plume of feathers in the angles; rather better in condition.
434 1708 Crown; Reverse same as the two first; condition fine; not much circulated; scarce.
435 1703 Half Crown; "Vigo" under the bust; in very good condition.
436 1707 do Rev., rose and plume of feather, in the angles; good.
437 1707 do E under the bust; Rev., without the rose, &c.; rather poor.
438 1707 do do do very fair.
439 1711 Shilling; very good impression; scarce.

448 1723 Shilling; uncirculated; Rev., same as preceding; rare in this condition.
449 1723 Sixpence; same reverse; but little circulated.
450 Maunday money, 4d., 3d, 2d., and 1d.; in fair condition; scarce.

GEORGE II.—1727 TO 1760.

451 1743 Crown; Head; a beautiful uncirculated piece; Rev., roses in the angles; very rare in this condition.
452 1751 Crown; Head; about as fine as the preceding, without roses on the reverse; equally rare.
453 1746 Half Crown; Head; the finest specimen I have ever seen; has a proof polish; a most desirable piece, and extremely rare; Rev., same as preceding.
454 1758 Shilling; almost uncirculated; rare.
455 1745 do good.
456 1757 Sixpence; rather poor.
457 Maundy money; 4d., 3d., 2d., and 1d.; all very good.

GEORGE III.—1760 TO 1820.

458 1818 Beautiful proof, Pistrucci Crown; I think the strongest impression I have seen; very desirable.

459 Pattern Crown, by J. Mudie. Under the bust are the letters J. M. D. ; on the reverse, Mills fecit ; damaged by nicks on the head ; it has lost also the real proof polish from the obverse. The reverse, however, is fine, but not brilliant. Very rare.

460 1816 Half crown : very fine ; but little circulated.

461 1804 Bank of Ireland Six Shilling Token, in very fine condition ; scarce.

462 1804 Bank of England Dollar, in fair condition.

466 Maunday Money—4d., 3d., 2d. and 1d. : all proofs.

GEORGE IV.—1820 TO 1830.

467 1821 Pistrucci Crown ; a splendid proof impression ; very desirable.

468 1826 A beautiful Proof Crown ; Rev., Crown with Shield ; most desirable piece ; very rare.

469 1826 Proof Half Crown ; same Reverse ; very fine.

470 1824 Half Crown ; barely fair.

471 1821 Shilling ; good and barely fair ; two pieces.

472 1822 Shilling, Sixpence and threepence, injured by circulation ; scarce.

473 Maunday Money, 4d., 3d., 2d. and 1d., all proofs.

WILLIAM IV.—1830 TO 1837.

474 1831 A beautiful Proof Crown ; rarer than any other English Crown, excepting only the Oxford Crown of Charles the First ; a most desirable piece, and exceedingly difficult to obtain.

475 1834 Half Crown ; in good condition ; scarce.

476 1831 Beautiful Proof Shilling ; very rare.

477 1831 do do Sixpence, do to match.

478 Maunday Money, 4d., 4d., 3d., 2d. and 1d. ; five pieces ; all proofs.

VICTORIA.

479 1847 Beautiful Proof Gothic Crown ; very rare, together with a full proof set of 1839, containing Crown, Half Crown, Shilling, Sixpence, and set of Maunday money, with copper proof Penny, Halfpenny, Farthing and Half Farthing, in all fourteen pieces ; very rare indeed as a set.

HOLLAND.

2183 1622 Crown of Zeeland. The obverse was intended to represent an armed figure standing with his head looking left, with a sword in the right hand over a shield ; from the die having slipped the head of the figure, in profile, appears as if it had been severed from the body, and rests on the shoulder, which gives it a very ridiculous appearance. Legend, "Luctor et Emergo ;" Rev., seven shields, "Mo. no Arg. ordin Zeelandie ;" in poor condition.

2184 1683 Thaler of West Freedland ; Ob., Warrior with bear skin cap, "Nisi dominus nobiscum :" Rev., Shield and Crown, "Florenus. Argent. ordi Frisiae ;" in poor condition ; countermarked G. O. ; rare.

MEXICO.

2215 1812 Dollar, known as the Vargas Dollar. All the pieces I remember to have seen, and said to be stamped by General Vargas, have been in very poor condition, and this forms no exception, being quite as poor as any that I have ever met with. These dollars are doubtless rare in any condition, and generally sell very readily; and this has the advantage, if it be such, of being double struck.

2216 1822 Dollar of Augustus; Head looking right; Rev., Small Eagle with small crown on its head; fair and scarce.

2217 1823 Dollar of Augustinus; head to right; Rev., Larger Eagle, and different position, and legend slightly different; rather poor but also scarce.

2221	1839	do	do	much better.
2222	1841	do	do	very good.
2223	1860	do	do	not as good.
2224	1860	do	do	very fine; almost uncirculated.

2225 1859 Quarter Dollar; same design; almost proof; the liberty cap on the obverse rubbed by circulation; the breast of the Eagle is still more defective, but this possibly may have been caused by an imperfect die, as the piece is slightly concave, and all the higher parts of the Quarter are free from any marks of circulation; altogether it is still a desirable piece.

2226 1835 Half Dollar; same design; very poor.

2227 Four Quarters; various; all much circulated.

2228 1866 Maximilian Dollar from Mint of Mexico; in fine condition for one of these dollars, which at best are generally but poorly struck.
